The National Disaster has been declared in terms of the National Disaster Act, 2002 (Act no 57 of 2002) (“the Act”). As a result of this declaration, the Minister of Cooperative Governance (COGTA) has made regulations in terms of section 27(2) of the Act. During this period of lockdown, companies will have to shut down and employees laid off temporarily. This means that the employees are compelled to take leave, which is not out of choice. We therefore anticipate that employees may lost income.

Employers are encouraged to continue to pay employees, but where this is not economically possible; we have created a special benefit under the Unemployment Insurance Fund as per the Directive Covid-19 Temporary Employee/Employer Relief Scheme.
